PETITION TO MODIFY THE CONDITIONS OR TERM
OF SUPERVISION WITH CONSENT OF THE OFFENDER

PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

5. The releasee shall have no personal contact or communication in any manner with any case agent or other persons associated with the underlying offense, unless in the presence of an attorney.

Justification: Since the inception of supervision, Vogelsang has filed numerous lawsuits involving his conviction in this case. While maintaining compliance on supervision, he adamantly professes his innocence in this case. On December 9, 2009, a former case agent in this case contacted this officer and advised Vogelsang had been following her and calling her incessantly until she observed him leaving a package on her front porch. Contained in the package were civil court documents outlining his lawsuit against her and other former agents.

The undersigned officer immediately contacted the U.S. criminal and civil attorneys in this case, wherein, they advised that more than likely he was serving her with documentation so his civil case could proceed. Vogelsang was questioned and instructed to cease all contact with any and all case agents in this case unless he was in the presence of an attorney. He reported that he must have scared her, so she contacted his probation officer. He signed a hearing waiver form reflecting his compliance in the future. He explained he simply did not have the money to hire a process server, and he did not deny calling her or locating her personal residence.

Therefore, it is respectfully recommended that Special Condition Number 5 be added to Vogelsang's formal Judgment ordering him to have no personal contact or communication in any manner with any case agent or other persons associated with the underlying offense, unless in the presence of an attorney.
